

Melanie Radlick-Sabelhaus - Class of 1966

BUSINESS CAREER

- Founded Exclusive Interim Properties Ltd in Baltimore in 1986. In 1997 the company merged with four other companies to become Bridgestreet Accommodations where she served as Vice President of Global Sales until 1998.
- She has dedicated her time to community fund raising and women's business issues.
- Served on boards of United Way and Alzheimer's Association of Central Maryland
- Co-Chair for the National Summit on Women in Philanthropy.
- Recipient of the 2002 Outstanding Volunteer Fundraiser of the Year Award for Maryland awarded by the Association of Fundraising Professionals.
- 2004 - nominated by President Bush for the post of Deputy Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration. Nomination was confirmed unanimously by the US Senate.